APPLICATION TERMS: I hereby swear the above information is true and correct to the best of my recollection and grant the Employer the right to check my credentials, educational records, credit report, legal records, medical records, references, work performances, personal records and any other information it deems necessary to consider this application. I hereby give educational institutions and instructors, creditor sources and reporters, employers, references and others disclosed here permission to give the employer any information it requests and to discuss and review any information contained in this application. I understand I may be tested for drugs at any time before or after employment.

This application is not a job offer and is not a guarantee that a job will be available or that a candidate will be selected for any anticipated employment. The Employer only makes job offers in written form and no verbal, email, letter or other communication should be considered an offer unless it specifically states that it is an employment offer or employment contract. Such an offer must include the title of the position, the hours to be worked, details of compensation and other employment contract details. Once a job offer has been given it may be withdrawn at any time prior to the candidate's acceptance. All employment at the Employer is at the will of the company and may be ended at any time by The Employer with or without reason.

Nothing herein should be construed as the Employer having given the candidate, an employment agency or any other party authority to bind the Employer for fees, costs or duties related to this application. Should the candidate incur such costs in order to apply the Candidate is solely liable for them. In submitting this application, a resume and any other information the Candidate agrees to its terms.
